[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] ASHLAND, VA., September 5.—The Ashland Rifle Club will hold its shoot at Ashland Park on September 12th. Shooting will begin at 9:30.
The club, under management of Mack Hart, has gone to much trouble and expense arranging for the tournament, and from the entries reported to this time the affair will be a decided success. Regular rules will be observed.
Any 22-calibre rifle may be used, but peep and telescope sights will be barred. The shoot will be held on the 240 R. F. and P. train, and will leave the Park at 4:45 P. M., reaching Richmond at 5:30.

Lunches will be served, and the management will see that those attending are well taken care of. Prizes to the amount of $107.75 will be shot for.
The following is a list of events, with prizes offered:

PROGRESSIVE EUCHE. Handsomeness Entertained in Keyville

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KEYVILLE, VA., September 5.—

Miss Lucie Morton was hostess of Thursday afternoon at a progressive euchre party in honor of Mrs. Ernest Haralson, of Houston, Tex., and Miss Isabel Norvell, of Chase City. There was a spirited contest from 3 to 8 o'clock, in which Mrs. Haralson made the highest score and captured the prize, a box of silk hose. Miss Morton served her guests with punch, and at the conclusion of the game with dainty refreshments. Those who enjoyed her gracious hospitality were: Mrs. Ernest Haralson, of Houston, Tex.; Mrs. John Watkins, of South Boston; Miss Isabel Norvell, of Chase City; Miss Grace Phillips, of Richmond; Miss Ora Leigh Moore, of South Boston; Mrs. John Deane, of Stephensburg; Mrs. Miss Lucie Eggleston, of Charlotte Courthouse; Miss Margaret Priddy, of Tine; Misses Mrs. William Robinson, Mrs. Charles Osborne and Mrs. Heber Morton, of Keyville.

HEAP MUCH HOT AIR.

Second District Republicans Decide to Elect Everybody.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., September 5.—A booster session of the Republican committee of the Second District was held in Norfolk today afternoon, and judging by the hot air spelt out, the G. O. P. will not only elect Candidate Taft, but D. Lawrence Groner will succeed Congressman Harry L. Maynard. Great confidence in the election of both was expressed.

Alvah H. Hart, brought words of encouragement from Judge Taft and Chairman Hitchcock, and the promise that national speakers would invade the Second. Mr. Groner urged that everybody take off their coats and work for success.

County delegates advocated as a campaign issue a higher tariff on penny and will be one of the slogans.
They urge joint debates between Groner and Maynard.

JOHN J. EMERY DEAD.

Leaves Fortune of $40,000,000, Accumulated Largely in Real Estate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BAY HARBOR, ME., September 5.—

John J. Emery, of New York, died today from pneumonia at his summer home, The Turrets, after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Emery had large holdings of real estate in Cincinnati, where he lived until twelve years ago, and in other Western cities, and his fortune is reputed to be $40,000,000.
He had passed his summers here for thirty years.

There will be no funeral services here, but the body will be taken to Cincinnati. He is survived by a widow and five children.

Mr. Emery was born of English parents, who settled in Cincinnati, and he and his brother, Thomas Emery, devoted their time to improving real estate. He is said to have owned 2,000 buildings in Cincinnati, besides a hotel and two theatres. He was about seventy years old.

DOCTOR SAID CONSUMPTION

Mr. C. W. Weaver, of Bristol, Vt., who was told by his doctor that he had only a short time to live, as he had consumption, takes Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which was recommended by the doctor, gains vigor and strength every day, and is in better health than he had been in years before taking it.

In a recent letter Mr. Weaver writes:
"Two years ago my doctor told me I had consumption; that I could live but a short time, recommending to me at the same time Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I have taken it ever since according to directions. I feel better and stronger than I have for seven years past. Yes, I heartily indorse Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as a cure for consumption."
Thousands of letters like this are received daily from grateful men and women who cannot say too much in praise of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for the benefits derived from its use.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain; great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence, which is the most effective tonic-stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

It cures nervousness, typhoid, malaria, every form of stomach trouble, diseases of the throat and lungs, and all rundown and weakened conditions of the body, brain and nerves. It is prescribed by doctors, and is recognized as a family medicine everywhere.

CAUTION.—When you ask your druggist, grocer or dealer for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, be sure you get the genuine. It's the only absolutely pure medicinal malt whiskey, and is sold in large sealed bottles only; never in bulk. Price, $1.00. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and make sure the seal over the cork is unbroken. Write Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice.

BRYAN BOOSTERS' CLUB

Williamsburg Citizens Meet and Organize Political Body.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WILLIAMSBURG, VA., September 5.—

An enthusiastic mass meeting of Democrats of Williamsburg and surrounding country was held at the court-house Monday night for the purpose of organizing a Bryan-Kern-Lamb Club.

Mr. R. L. Spencer, chairman of the Democratic committee, called the meeting to order, and the following permanent officers were all unanimously elected: President, R. L. Spencer; Vice-Presidents, Messrs. B. F. Wright, John L. Mercer and A. J. Barnes; Secretary, Mr. J. H. Heath; Treasurer, Mr. S. L.
Graham.

Working committees, including a committee on contributions and another on campaign, were appointed by the chair. There will be no membership fee, and all contributions will be voluntary.

After electing Hon. M. H. Barnes, of New Kent, an honorary member, the club adjourned to meet at the courthouse Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Judge D. G. Tyler will be at Providence Forge on Friday, September 12th, to act upon the petition signed by 169 citizens of New Kent county, asking for a special election on the question of changing the county seat. It is believed there will be no opposition to the petition by those opposing the removal, and that the matter will be allowed to go to the people for their decision.

Furniture for the new Williamsburg Female Institute having been delayed in transit, President W. M. Hunter, of that institution, announces that the session will not open next Tuesday, as bang with sweet effect "Because of You." Then followed the Lohengrin wedding march, sounded by Mrs. R. J.

Teague, of Roxboro, from the piano, as the twelve couples of attendants came forward and took their places around the improvised altar, being preceded by Rev. W. T. Doggett, D. D., of Danville, Va., and the ushers, Mr.
W. Branch Lawson, of South Boston, and Dr. E. W. Shackelford, of Durham, N. C.

The attendants were: Miss Annie Laurie Long, of Durham, N. C., with Dr. John A. Owen, of South Boston, Va.; Miss Beattie Lawson, of South Boston, Va., with Mr. William L. Whaley, of Cluster Springs, Va.; Miss Elizabeth Easley, of Lynchburg, Va., with Mr.
Branch Cralle, of Farmville, Va.; Miss Mamie Myer, of Fredericksburg, Va., with Mr. Walden Myers, of Broadway, Va.; Miss Sallie Cowan, of Emmett, Tenn., with Mr. Stanton Pilcher, of Philadelphia, Pa.; Miss Sarah Cradlock, of Cluster Springs, Va., with Mr. Charles H. Owen, of Denham, Va.; Miss Helen Easley, of South Boston, Va., with Mr. J. C. Hipp, of Newberry, S. C.; Miss Harriet Wilson, of New Ferry, Va., with Mr. William L.
Owen, of New York City; Miss Harriet Stuckey, of Richmond, Va., with Mr. Horstley Easley, of Lynchburg, Va.; Miss Portia Owen, of Turberville, Va., with Mr. James A. Long, Jr., of Roxboro, N. C.

The groom entered with his best man, Dr. S. W. Ryburn, his brother, of Bristol, Tenn. He was followed by his sister, Miss Mary Wilson, of Cluster Springs, scattering roses in the path of the bride, and Master Frederick Owen, of Denham, the bride's youngest brother, bearing the ring on a silver dish. Last of all came the bride, leaning on the arm of her sister, Mrs. Emmett Shackelford, of Durham, N. C., who was the matron of honor. The bride and groom stood beneath a floral bell while Rev. Dr. Doggett spoke the solemn words which united them for life, the ring ceremony being under Schubert's serenade was softly played, and when the final words were spoken the bride and groom retired to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was dressed in ivory messeline princess, en train, trimmed in duchesse lace, her veil being caught back with a wreath of orange blossoms, and in her hair wore the high comb her great-grandmother wore at her wedding nearly a century ago. She also wore the miniature of her paternal great-grandfather, and carried a bou-quet of bride's roses and ferns.

Following the marriage a reception was held in the parlors, at which an elaborate luncheon was served the wedding guests. The tables were beautifully decorated with trailing vines, pink and yellow roses, and the bride was served from beautiful hand-painted china designed and executed by the bride.

The wedding party came to the station about 3 o'clock and boarded the Southern Railway train for a brief wedding tour. Mr. Ryburn is a Master of Declarator, Ga., after September 15th, where the groom will become head master of the Donald Fraser Military Academy. Mr. Ryburn is a Master of Arts at the University of Virginia. He taught for several years in the Cluster Springs Academy, of this county, and is a young man of high character, and superior attainments.

The bride is the daughter of D. W.
Owen, Esq., one of the most prominent citizens of Halifax county, and a granddaughter of the late Hon. William L. Owen, member of the Constitutional Convention after the Civil War.

Among the guests present were:
Judge and Mrs. William R. Barksdale, Houston; Sen. J. B. Ewell, J. A. Long, of Roxboro, N. C.; Dr. and Mrs. R. J.
Teague, Durham, N. C.; Mrs. J. R.
Gravely, Craddock, Houston; Mrs. Minnie C. Chisholm, Lynchburg; John H.
Davis, Farmville; Mr. S. W. Ryburn, Bristol, Tenn.; Mr. A. A. Owen, Turberville, Va.; Rev. and Mrs. T.
W. Branch Lawson, of South Boston, Va.; Mr. J. P. Spencer, Lexington, Va.; Mr. Cralle, Farmville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hundley, Prince Edward,
Va.; Mrs. Harry Hundley, Burkeville, Va., and others.

Talley—McEvoy.
Mr. Jas. H. McEvoy issued invitations to the marriage of his daughter, Cecilia B., to Mr. Philip Clifton Talley, September 23d, at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

BY LOCAL TALENT.

Excellent Drama in Five Acts Presented by Amateurs.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SOUTH BOSTON, VA., September 5.— "A Soldier's Fortune," a modern drama in five acts, was presented at the Temple Theatre by local talent on Friday evening. Each player actively participated in the production, the audience greatly enjoyed the performance. Excellent music was furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Moody.
Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle and Mr. Palmer, who made up the orchestra, the violin and cornet solos by Mr. Palmer.
The cast of characters were as follows: Colonel Fitzgibbon, A. P. Gilbert; Mr. Patton, T. Webb; Mr. Belmont, C. Coates; Fred Belmont, his son; V. Lawson; Agnes Belmont, his daughter; John Easley, Dr. Fargo, L.
Lovelace; Miss M. Richardson; Miss

Snidow—Williams.
[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
PEARISBURG, VA., September 5.—

"Fort Ransom," the home of Judge and Mrs. Martin Williams, near town, was the scene of a wedding ceremony at 10 o'clock of the wedding of their youngest daughter, Annie Neal, who was united in marriage to Mr. Frank Peck Snidow, of Pembroke, Va. The parlor in which the ceremony was performed was beautifully decorated with evergreens, ferns, clematis and lighted with candles, the bride and groom standing under a wedding arch. The wedding march was rendered by Mrs. Lucille Snidow, the bride's sister, and during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. S. S. Catron, "Hearts and Flowers" was played.

The bride was of Persian mold, made on princess, her veil was caught with a spray of clematis, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses.

After the congratulations the bride and groom were ushered into the dining room, where a luncheon was served, consisting of ham sandwiches, chicken salad, fruit salad, beaten biscuits, pickles, ices, cake and coffee.
After the luncheon the bride's sister, Miss John Snidow cutting the ring and Mr. C. H. Mustard the darning needle.

Mr. and Mrs. Snidow left on the afternoon train for Lynchburg, and will go from there to Washington and Baltimore. On their return they will reside at Pembroke, Va., where Mr. Snidow is engaged in business.

The bride's traveling gown was of brown chamois Panama, with hat, gloves and shoes to match.

The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Snidow and Messrs. John and Robert Snidow, of Pembroke, father and mother and brothers of the groom; Mr. W. N. Mustard, of Bland, grandfather of the bride; Judge and Mrs. S. W. Williams and Mrs. A. H.
Williams, of Wytheville; Mr. and Mrs.
C. H. Mustard and little daughter, of Bluefield; Mr. and Mrs. James Hoge, of Pembroke; Mr. C. J. Peck and Mrs.
Laurie Williams, of Kimballton; Mrs.
George W. Kennard, of Staunton; Mr.
William Lybrook, of Blacksburg; Mr.
W. M. Williams, of Blacksburg; Miss Rose Mustard, of Bland; Mr. M. R.
Farrier, Mr. W. B. Snidow, Rev. S. S.
Catron, and the immediate family of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Snidow were the recipients of a large number of beautiful presents of cut-glass, silver and china, which attested to their popularity.

Ryburn—Owen.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] DENNISPORT, VA., September 5.—Under a cloudless sky with local September weather, Miss Sue Watkins Owen became the bride yesterday at high noon of Professor William Oscar Ryburn, of Sullivan county, Tenn.

"Hye Heights," the elegant country home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel William Owen, who has been the scene of so many brilliant social events, never looked more beautiful than when the spacious front piazza, which was elaborately decorated for the occasion, was used as an altar, the color scheme being white and yellow.

Just before the bridal party came from the parlors, Mrs. Tucker Carrington Watkins, Jr., of South Boston,

SURPRISED HER FRIENDS

MRS. DRUMMOND.

(Formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr.)

[Special Cable to The Times-Dispatch.] LONDON, September 5.—The English friends of Mrs. Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, Jr., are none too well pleased at her unexpected marriage. Her husband is neither wealthy nor socially prominent, and from a man's point of view, they say he is no great catch.

FELL FROM ROOF.

Tinner Badly Hurt by Tumble to Lynchburg Street.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
LYNCHBURG, VA., September 5.—

Robert Lamplier, a tinner employed by Coleman & Jordan, fell off of a roof on which he was at work this morning at the corner of Amherst and Early Streets, sustaining a fractured collarbone, a sprained wrist and an injury to one of his hips by the fall, which was about thirty feet.

The injured man was attended by Dr. Devine, and was sent to his home, No. 1720 Elm Avenue. Dr. Devine stated this afternoon that Mr. Lamplier was doing as well as could be expected, and he was hopeful that he had sustained no internal injuries.

WORKMEN ENGAGED TO DAY pulling down the damaged portion of the old union passenger station, near the river, preparatory to restoring the building to its former condition. The work is being done by the city engineer, and rapid progress to-day in building the dam at the mouth of the new channel, in order to turn the water back into the river. As soon as this is accomplished the washout will be filled.

The Atlantic Coast Line has built a wide footway on its new trestle bridge, and thus restored communication between Petersburg and Pocahontas, which has been cut off for some days.

Mr. George W. Graves, grand herald of the Grand Lodge of Virginia, Odd Fellows, is endeavoring to organize lodges of the order in the villages of Ettrick and Matoaca, with good prospects of success.

"The American" is a new theatre, just established by local capitalists, for the accommodation of the colored community. It is located on Harrison Street.

"The Palms," a fashionable confectionery and ice cream store, was entered through a rear window by a thief last night, and the cash register was robbed of $2. Nothing else was discovered as far as is known.

The Young People's Hebrew Association will have a joint debate this afternoon in the Union Street Temple on the subject of "Liquor." Mr. A.
Gelman takes the affirmative, and Mr.
A. Friedas the negative of the question.

There will be no general observance of Labor Day in this city other than as a general holiday.

Mr. Hugh Campbell and his son, Mr.
Benjamin Campbell, of this city, who have been visiting in Scotland for some weeks, have returned home.

ORGANIZE SCHOOL BOARD.

Brookville District Elects John W.
Gillis President of Body.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

The Brookville District School Board met this morning in the office of the board, in the Kries Building, and organized for the ensuing term by the election of Mr. John W. Gillis as president, and Mr. David Walker as secretary. Mr. Gillis succeeded Mr. Falwell as chairman, and Mr. Walker, the newly elected member, takes the place of Mr. John Williams, who was the secretary for a number of years, but who retired, and is succeeded as a member of the board by Mr. Walker.
